I cannot talk now I am replying from my phone, just got back from hospital. I collapsed at the dentist due to stress and exhaustion from you last night and they initially expected heart attack but now expect a TIA (mini stroke) brought on by your episode last night. I had to go to Worcester Royal hospital for tests including an MRI and am now at home waiting for them, thankfully Mum is a doctor and knows people in that department and can push them through fast as it could mean extra damage to my existing brain condition. The doctor said it was brought on by stress and that I need to take myself out of this situation and not talk to you. Please just leave the rescue page and make me admin, I will remove any word with a bloody D in it (tripawd), you are destroying my health now as well as putting the rescue dogs at risk. Mum isn't even happy with me replying to you now to say this considering what has just happened to me. She's asked me to ask you to leave me alone while I recover and has asked that you leave the page and leave me to it. She says that if the last three years have shown you anything than it's that I am the most compassionate and honourable person. So please just drop this, leave the page, give me full rights and leave me to recover. I can't do anything further tonight. I cannot cope with this another day, please just leave me alone and leave me with the page that keeps me from my disabilities, saving the lives of dogs on a daily basis. I didn't think you were like this.

I wanted to add that of course we will leave the rescue page and the group as soon as we are back in the office this morning (it's 7 am here). Thank you for removing the artwork on the group header and profile, we appreciate that greatly.

Caroline please, I am really sorry you are so upset, there was no harm intended by trying to end this relationship amicably. You work hard and I have the utmost respect for your efforts. Please, let's talk OK? I'll be back in soon.

I had emailed facebook last night before you went on your rampage of torment last night to change the group name. You are terrorising a disabled person with extreme anxiety to the point I couldn't sleep at all last night. I will have to post on the group about the fact that you are going to try and sue me for using the word Tripawds because they will wonder why the sudden name change and then everyone who is on our group (1200 people) will be disgusted at your actions towards me and won't want to be involved with Tripawds.com <<http://Tripawds.com>>, I don't want that but I have to explain somehow?! I had given you every opportunity to reply to my emails but you didn't, you instead went ahead and deleted everything so that was your choice. I have 6 dogs on death row to be finding rescue spaces for from public shelter and do not want to be involved with you. You are still in the group, so if you have any shred of respect for me or my health which you are making worse by the minute then I ask that you make me full admin and remove yourselves.

After three years of doing nothing but good for you I would expect that. I am absolutely shocked and amazed at your treatment of me when you know the situation I am in with my brain condition which worsens daily, the stress that puts me under and how you are now putting me at further risk of complication when I should be avoiding stress not being threatened. Jim mentioned that I have changed the about section on the rescue page, I have not. I have added a picture of Tango before I went downstairs to sit outside and cry my bloody eyes out because of the pain this has caused me because you left it blank and looking like we were a nobody, putting our adoptable dogs at risk, you don't realise what damage you are doing by not allowing me to be full admin on that page because you don't realise what work I put into that page 24 hours a day and by email. Have a heart, before this kills me.

Caroline we really don't want to make this even more upsetting for you. Can we please be cordial about this? We feel we are being fair considering you deleted our capabilities without trying to work this out first.

As far as the rescue page we do have a heart, that's why we changed the name and didn't delete it. You still have all the functionality as far as posting information, sharing it, etc.

We will restore your full admin capabilities on the rescue page as soon as you 1) resolve the naming issue with the group, or 2) make either me or Jim an Admin again so that we can work together.

We know that shutting the group down doesn't help the dogs or the members, but we own full trademark rights to the Tripawds name and identity and want to avoid confusion.

Thank you for your understanding.

That's fine but I will not be deleting the group and starting a new one and I ask that you make me an admin on the rescue page so that I can change the name to what I want to call it, not what you want to call it please. I will not be calling it tripods UK. There are dogs on there that I am in the process of saving from death row so I ask you that you have a heart and make me an admin on it immediately and then remove yourselves as admin.

I will be changing the Tripawds UK group name by contacting facebook directly and will not be closing the group after 3 years of work that I have put into it, many thanks.

Caroline,

The reason we don't chat a whole lot is you've done a great job running the group, we see that. We sincerely apologise for upsetting you like this and we really did want to fix what's wrong, but now we see that you've removed us as Group Admins. By this action it's clear that you want to do this on your own and we understand that.

We're sorry to see our relationship end, we don't want it to be on a bad note, we greatly appreciate what you've done. All we ask is that you notify your group members that you will be shutting down the group and starting a new one in 48 hours that is not officially affiliated with Tripawds.com <<http://Tripawds.com>>. When you do so, you may not use the Tripawds.com <<http://Tripawds.com>> spelling as "Tripawd", the branding, images or resources from our community, which would be in violation of international trademark law. By your actions I'm sure you don't want to do that anyways but thanks in advance for understanding and complying with these rules.

As far as the Tripawds UK Rescue page, we have edited it to "www.facebook.com/tripawdsuk.rescue <<http://www.facebook.com/tripawdsuk.rescue>>" so that you may continue doing your great work there. We have requested a name change with Facebook.

Please understand that we really did think you were doing a great job and we hold no hard feelings about this. We wish you the best of luck in your endeavors.

There is never any communication from either of you and I always give 110 % in everything I do for you and let you know to a T whatever I am doing and when I am doing it and how I am doing it. I give you absolute notice on every single thing and I can't give any more communication and I don't receive that back and I can't continue to work alongside you with that continuing. I feel undermined in a group that I have made so successful and put my blood sweat and tears into daily for the last three years. Simple things like emailing me to say could you add a cover photo please Caroline would not have been a problem rather than coming on to find it being changed like when posts were made on the rescue page when they were against the guidelines I had set out with you in the first place because they asked for funding when we could be sure it was legitimate. I'm going to bed now, I don't know what more I can say really. I feel really upset by this. I give absolutely everything and I try to do this for the good of Tripawds as a global organisation but perhaps I would be better just doing this alone.
